

Cutaneous Lymphoma International Nursing Network (CLINN)
Guy's Hospital – Friday 13 October

08.45 Registration (refreshments available)

09.15 Welcome: Dr Fiona Child, Consultant Dermatologist, GSTT
and Clinical Nurse Specialists from GSTT

09.20 Introduction: Susan Thornton, Chief Executive, Cutaneous Lymphoma Foundation

09.25 Introduction to case studies – patients with cutaneous lymphoma
(15 minutes each, plus 5 minutes Q&A)

09.30 Case study 1: Sue McCann, Programmatic Nurse Specialist, University of Pittsburgh
Medical Center
A patient with extensive disease and 2 other cancers

09.50 Case study 2: Marianne Tawa, Nurse Practitioner, Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
A patient who was difficult to diagnose

10.10 Case study 3: Ian Gosling, Clinical Nurse Specialist, GSTT
A patient who had a stem cell transplant

10.30 Supporting patients with a diagnosis of cutaneous lymphoma
Caroline Johnson and Danuta Orłowska, Clinical Psychologists, GSTT

10.50 General Q&A following all case studies

11:00 Break (refreshments available)

11.20 “You’ll be fine”: an artist’s response to her diagnosis
Jenni Horton and Danuta Orłowska (presented by Danuta)

11.25 Round table discussions (please see overleaf)

11.25 Round table discussions (please choose one and agree someone to make notes)

- 1. Topical treatments and the challenges of wound care
(Cath Morgans and Tracy Clarke, Clinical Nurse Specialists, GSTT)
- 2. Managing itch
(Marianne Tawa, Nurse Practitioner, Dana-Farber Cancer Institute)
- 3. Nurse-led Bexarotene clinics at Guy's Hospital
(Alison Baker, Clinical Nurse Specialist, GSTT)

Round tables 1 and 2

- 5 mins mini-presentation
- 20-25 mins discussion

Round table 3

- 10-15 mins presentation
- 15 mins discussion

All tables - 5 minutes to create a flip-chart to share

12.00 5 minutes feedback to whole group from each table

12.15 Summary, future plans for CLINN and evaluation

12.30 (ish) Close